

Quo. – Privacy Policy

Effective date: June 10, 2026

Quo. is a daily quote app. Your privacy is simple with us, because we collect nothing.

Data Collection

Quo. does NOT collect, store, transmit, or share any personal data. Period.

- No accounts or sign-ups
- No analytics or tracking
- No advertising
- No third-party SDKs that collect data
- No network transmission of your content

Your Quotes

All quotes you add are stored locally on your device only. They are shared with the Quo. widget on the same device via Apple's App Group storage and never leave your device. Deleting the app deletes all data.
